1st Chief 10 Bears Award Presented

Special Recognition went to Skookumtumtum Heaps of Spokane, Washington. He received the "Chief 10 Bears" Award in recognition of having completed 20 annual Le Grizz runs. Master of Ceremonies for this presentation was Maynard Kicking Woman, an elder of the Blackfoot Nation, assisted by the Order of the Arrow, a fellowship of Boy Scouts dedicated to cheerful service. Mr. Kicking Woman shared his personal clarity and power with the finishers and their crews, verified Skookumtumtum's commitment to life as a spiritual warrior, sang a warrior song, then certified Skookumtumtum for his bronze sculpture award.

Montana USATF 50 Mile Championship

Montana resident winners were Mark Tarr and Mariann Foster in the Open Division, and Masters Jeff Foster and Pam Naugle.

"Special" Awards

The Kiss of Death: Overall winners Mark Tarr and Dori Robertson get next year's entry fee waived.

10 Cubs Award: Randy Avery received a Le Grizz clock in appreciation of his 10 years of service at the aid stations.

Florida Recount Award: Judy Novobielski-Muhs, late entrant due to problems obtaining a USATF membership, got a plaque with a lamp of knowledge and the inscription, "I didn't understand the instructions at Le Grizz."

Gary Condit Award: Larry Vandenburg, late entrant, thought maybe he could get out of running after initially failing to obtain a USATF membership. His plaque had a hound with a cub up a tree, and read, "How come that other guy got away with it?"
